Dear Howard:

While I was on vacation and at the National Conference in Colorado, Mr. Edward E. Deputy, a member of the Troop Committee of Troop #272, District #2, Council #528, who was new on last year's charter, a member of the catholic faith, and 40 years old, was apprehended by the law and is now serving time in the Pennsylvania Penal Institution for molestation of [REDACTED]. We have deleted Mr. Deputy from our records and wish to place him on the confidential file in your office.

Unfortunately Mr. Deputy was a member of a troop committee in a housing development, recently arrived there, and I cannot find out any of the additional information necessary, such as height, color of eyes, number of children in family, etc. If you will place him in your file immediately, delete him from our role and send me the appropriate forms I will try to see how much information I can find.

Sincerely,

Robert F. Meinholtz
